At the first concert, on the 5th of May last, this Association distributed to its patrons the sum of $37,575 50 in excess of its published agreement, dividing on a sale of one-third of the tickets sold the same amount as if they had sold one-half.

THE CITY SCRIP.—The new City Scrip which has been used by the city authorities in payment of all dues from the city, is of four denominations, viz: 50 cents and one, two and five dollars. It is thought to be well executed. Upon the 20th inst., there was a good picture of C. H. Manly, Esq., Ex-Mayor, on the one dollar notes, of Thos. Green, Esq., in the uniform of Chief Engineer of the Fire Department, on the two dollar notes, of John McCall, Esq., present Mayor. The scrip was authorized by act of the Legislature of the State of Mississippi, approved April 21, 1874, and is "receivable for all general taxes of the State of Mississippi."

The Jackson Schools.—We were unfortunate this year in being unable to attend the examination and closing exercises of Fairlawn Institute and Jackson High School. We learn that the attendance of patrons and friends at each was very good, and the examinations were thorough and highly creditable to the teachers of both institutions. Prof. R. J. McLaurin and Mr. Selden Watkins, have been the teachers of the High School since its organization, and have certainly made a good exhibit of their ability and skill as instructors. Miss Mary and Fanny Mosley and Miss Mary Fearn have been for several years the teachers in Fairlawn Institute. Their merits are well known and substantially appreciated.

ST. JOSEPH'S SCHOOL.—We returned to the city last Thursday evening just in time to be present at the Annual Exhibition of St. Joseph's School. A more delightful juvenile entertainment we have never attended. The exercises took place at the school house on West street. The front gallery was used for the school, and tastefully decorated, and seats were arranged on the lawn in front for visitors. The exercises began at six and were continued until ten o'clock. We were kindly furnished with a manuscript programme, and had noted names of several of the scholars. The special mention, but where all did so very well we deem it best to make no distinction. St. Joseph's School is one of the established institutions of our city. It is under the charge of the Sisters of Mercy, and has about one hundred and fifty pupils in attendance.

THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS.—The Public School (white) closed last Friday. Capt. Wolf, Superintendent of Education, this writer, and a few other visitors were present. The examination was quite thorough, and the scholars were well prepared. The school was small—about sixty. The school does not seem to enjoy that measure of prosperity that it should. The irregular attendance of pupils, and the steady falling off toward the close of the session, is the principal drawback to the success of this school. With tuition absolutely free, and with competent teachers, this school should have three times the number of scholars in attendance. The teachers in the Boys' Department are: Miss S. W. Wilkinson, Principal; Mrs. Callie Smith, Miss M. J. Doty, Principal; Miss Mary Johnson, a student.

The colored Public School, located in the south ward, closed its session on Tuesday. The examinations on Monday and Tuesday were very thorough and highly satisfactory. There were many visitors present, and were pleased at the progress made. Rev. Dr. Hunter, and Prof. Watkins, of the High School, and Rev. C. Parish, all experienced teachers asked questions very freely, and the pupils generally correct answers give a better understanding of the progress of the teachers and close application on the part of students. The teachers are Isiah Mitchell, Principal, and five competent assistants. The attendance during the session reached nearly two hundred. A grand picnic at Moody's Grove to-day closes the session.

MARRIED.—In this city, Tuesday evening, June 30th, at St. Andrew's Church, by the Rev. Dr. Wm. H. Patten, P. Bailey, Chancellor of the 11th District, and Miss Mary W. Dwyer, of this city, Alice and Ward of the late Col. John Duncan.

CLOSING EXERCISES

OF WHITWORTH COLLEGE.

BROOKHAVEN, June 30th, 1874.
DEAR CLARION: I have only time to write one-fourth that might be told of the closing exercises of Whitworth Female College. In the matter of the programmes, the literary and musical exhibitions, and the attendance of visitors, and all the other elements that enter into a successful Commencement week, I am sure that the one just closed surpasses all previous Commencements in the career of Whitworth College.

By the way, I have often asked, and have not yet been satisfactorily answered, why the term "Commencement" is applied to the last day of session. An English divine who recently visited this country cited this as one of the queer ways Americans have of expressing themselves. The dictionary defines the word as the day of a University term, when degrees are conferred upon students and others. The usage is, however, to confer these degrees on the last day of the term. Who will explain?

Well the commencement week of Whitworth commenced last Friday night with an exhibition by the Galloway Society. On Sunday morning Rev. W. H. Watkins preached the Commencement sermon. The Galloway Society celebrated its Anniversary yesterday, when Rev. C. B. Galloway, of Jackson, delivered the oration, and which I heard spoken in terms of high praise. The oration was well received, and the audience in the afternoon, and Miss Johnson and Nettie Stewart, conducted a spirited debate on the question: "Is the woman's crusade against liquor dealers justifiable?" Miss Fannie E. Rainey delivered the Valedictory.

THE GRAND CONCERT.—Took place last night. Thanks to the slow motion of a freight train, we reached the College Chapel at 10 o'clock. The large room was densely packed, but the ladies being recognized by that courteous member of the Faculty, Prof. E. F. Powell, his representative was promptly and comfortably seated. As we entered, our fair young friend Miss Jennie Hoskins was reciting "The New Churchman's Oration," and the audience had been allowed to applaud, I am sure she would have "brought down the house."

I will here mention as a peculiarity of the exhibition at Whitworth College, that no applause, or expressions of approbation are allowed by President Johnson, and persons in the audience who may so far forget themselves as to converse aloud, are liable to be called out by name from the rostrum. I have never seen an audience under such complete control. The profound, appreciative attention which is to be observed here on the part of the audience is in gratifying contrast to the rude and boisterous demonstrations, and partial and unjust discriminations that sometimes greet a scholar because he or she may have friends in the audience. Beneficial homes with perfumed cards, to be showered upon some, and to the ignoring of others, have no place upon the rostrum of Whitworth College. I trust that every President and Principal of our educational institutions will follow the example of President Johnson. The rule may not be appreciated at first, but a little experience will demonstrate its propriety.

Returning to the Concert, I had the pleasure of hearing the "Last Rose of Summer" played on eight pianos by fifty hands. This was a remarkable performance. This was followed by a capital band, "When the Band Begins to Play," Miss Annie Crutcher leading, and her band coming in vigorously on the chorus. Then, by request "Kathleen, the Barber's Daughter," at which the people were allowed to laugh, for the very good reason, that they could not help it.

I should say from what I have seen, that music is one of the specialties of Whitworth College. Prof. C. G. P. Eckhardt has been at the head of this department for several years, and is evidently master of his subject. He was assisted by Miss Carrie Patterson, Miss Ella Montgomery and Miss Mary Storm.

COMMENCEMENT DAY.—The exercises of to-day began promptly at 10 o'clock. A large audience had already assembled at that hour. Indeed the merchants had closed their stores to give themselves and employees an opportunity of attending. There were many visitors from distant points, for the school enjoys a widely extended patronage. After an "Antiphon" by the choir, prayer was offered by the Rev. Mr. Galloway, which was followed in another place of music by the choir. Then were read the names of the graduates, and then their essays in the order named.

Miss Leona Holmes, of Winona—Salute One; Miss Jennie Ellis, Copiah county—"Beauty"; Miss Carrie Patterson, Hancock county—"Handsome as Handsome does"; Miss Carrie B. Standifer, Trenton, La—"Recollections"; Miss Ada Anna Montgomery, Sharon—"Mu"; Miss Fannie E. Rainey, Hinds county—"Woman's Ways"; Miss Annie C. Crutcher, Vicksburg—"No Subject"; Miss Edwina Burnley, Brookhaven—"Flowers".

Next on the programme was "Address by W. L. Nugent, Esq.," but to the great disappointment of the audience it was announced that professional engagements prevented his attendance. Each essay, as read, was followed by a speech, announced the action of the Board in conferring the degree of Master of Literature upon the Graduate class. His remarks to the young ladies were in exceedingly good taste, and the matter and manner thereof were well calculated to impress upon the minds of the graduates. President Johnson then presented a long row of tables where all must stand and grab, and where the light-fingered hangers-on appropriate the choice morsels for future use.

THE MASONIC TEMPLE.—Which will now be erected as rapidly, as the experienced architect, Captain Herrod and enterprising contractors, can push it forward, is to be in the middle of the street, will have a handsome front of fifty-three feet and a depth of one hundred feet. The first story will be arranged for two stores, the second for offices, and the third story will be divided into halls for the masses, Old Fellows and Knights of Pythias. The brick wall is to be rough cast of sand, and cement, and the roof is to be of brown stone, the cornice around the entire building is to be of galvanized iron and the roof is to be the best shingle iron. The structure will cost between fifteen and twenty thousand dollars.
